

Cobble Cemetery

A plaque marks the way to the cemetery

In 1776, Capt. Samuel Jones, Thomas Miner and Cleb Welch were appointed to look out for a burying-place. They selected and laid out the grounds known as “The Cobble”.
